Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

I think during the election people were not educated about it as well as I feel as if people took it as a joke not thinking Trump was going to win. I feel like many things can create a slip in this country and place people against each other, because many people do not like it when people have their own opinions especially when it goes against what they thin, some people don't think hearing others opinion and are ignorant about the truth. In addition, Trump has such bad publicity it makes people think the worst things and not want to understand the truth. A topic of concern is that many immigrants and people that come from other countries think that they are being banned but in reality they should be more aware of what is actually happing.
